

REGISTRATION - COURSE INFORMATION

Learning Objectives: What information and/or skill will you learn in this study?

- To learn to obey the Bible and follow the right choices of characters in the Bible to shape emotions fitting for one who belongs to God's kingdom.
- To better understand the accountability of God's leaders to exhibit godly emotions in decision making.
- To choose to be compelled by God's Word as compared to negative responses and patterns based on one's own past experiences.
- To develop the emotional fortitude to finish God's mission.

Learning Resources and Strategies: What resources will you use to learn this information or skill?

- Classes offered by Inspire Women Leadership Institute, taught by Anita Carman, M.B.A., M.A.B.S.
- Carman, Anita. Workbook, Transforming Emotions in a Leader's Heart.

Evidence of Accomplishment of Objectives: How will you know that you have learned this information or skill?

- Attendance – The student will attend three Modules, four weeks each:
 - a. Leading in times of Rejection
 - b. Leading in times of Loneliness
 - c. Leading in times of Fear
- Notes - The student will take accurate lecture notes.
- Class Discussions – The student will participate in group discussion at the end of each class.
- Personalized Spiritual Coaching – After completing two Modules the student will meet individually with Mrs. Carman or staff to assess where she is in her spiritual journey and to identify her next spiritual milestone. Examples: Develop an outline for a book, Obtaining 501 (c) 3 status for a non-profit ministry, Writing a response paper to a book that addresses an area student is struggling with.
- Faith in Action Community Service – During each Module period the student will:
 - a. Attend 5 Inspire Women inner circles, held at Inspire Women's Spiritual Oasis; OR
 - b. Serve in a community project with Inspire Women, for a minimum of 5 hours.
- Discipling Others - The student will show understanding of the Module material by:
 - a. re-teaching the Module materials in three 45-minute sessions, corresponding with each Module,
 - b. to a group of 5 or more (brought by the student) at Inspire Women's spiritual oasis,
 - c. prior to the next Module begins (Example: Rejection is completed by end of March, this module must be re-taught by the end of July, Fear Module begins in August), and
 - d. have each participant write a statement on how the material transformed their emotions.
- Pass a final exam.
- Duration - The Leadership Institute is to be finished within two years, starting when attending the first Module.

Criteria and Means of Evaluating Evidence: How will you demonstrate you have learned this objective or skill? Anita Carman and/or Inspire staff member will meet to evaluate the seven points of evidence listed above, and completion of the final exam. For those taking the class for DTS credit will also meet with the supervising professor.

Meeting Expectations: When and how will you meet with your supervising professor?

Inspire Women's staff member or supervising professor will meet with the student.
