WEEKLY READING/HOMEWORK ASSIGNMENTS. This is designed as a methods course. Practice is essential to perfect both the art and skill of transforming emotions based on biblical principles. Weekly readings will be discussed in class on the date they are due; therefore, associated homework is a required part of each reading assignment and will be recording for completion at the beginning of each small group session. In order to receive credit for the module, all four (4) readings and accompanying homework assignments must be completed.
